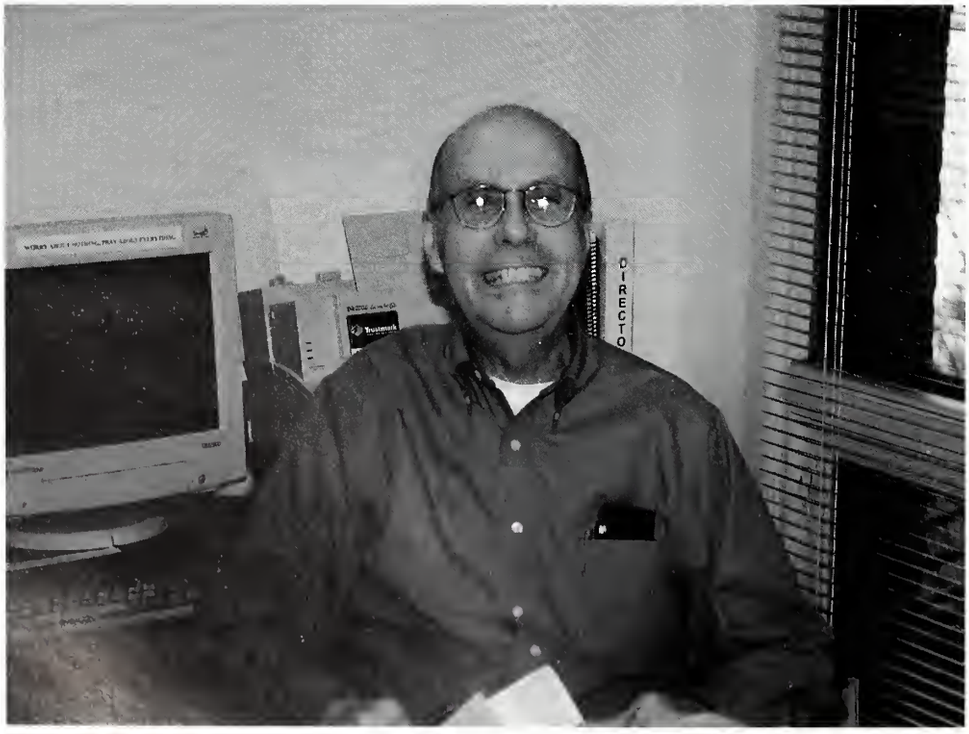
Dedication
Russell Ray

This year's edition of the Trillium is dedicated to Mr. Russell Ray. Mr. Ray has been an educator for twenty-nine years. Twenty-two of those years have been spent here at Co-Lin. Mr. Ray is Co-Lin's Director of Counseling and Recruitment and a Phi Theta Kappa advisor.

Mr. Ray is especially dedicated to helping current students and prospective students feel comfortable at Co-Lin. As a counselor he is always willing to help the students who have problems, whether it's with their schedule or something more personal.

Mr. Ray has also been very active with the Eta Omega Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa. He has been an advisor for PTK for fifteen years. He was the recipient of the 2001 PTK Continued Excellence Award for Advisors. He has served as a mentor for new PTK advisors. And he has taken the Eta Omega Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa to being in the top percentage in the world.



Thank you, Mr. Russell Ray for the days when you may not have felt like working, but you did it anyway. Thank you for being there whenever you were needed. Thank you for your positive Christian attitude that helps to make each day a good day.

Mr. Russell Ray has been a great influence for many people, and it is because of this that Trillium is proud to dedicate this edition to him.

Administration, Faculty, & Staff

"Come on and humor me!"

They are the people we hate to love. They torture us all year with chapters, assignments, research papers, and deadlines. We have given them every excuse in the book, and then some. But there are moments in time when they come down to our level and make us smile and laugh, and what beautiful moments they are. They are the Administration, Faculty, and Staff members who provide for us the blue prints for our future careers.

(Top picture) All those years of schooling finally paying off!!

"We really do work sometimes!"

"Anyone know the way to Hundred Acres Wood."

"I vant to zuck your...Ahh! The sun!"

Dr. Howell Garner
President of the College

Dr. Howell C. Garner became president of Copiah-Lincoln Community College on July 1, 1997. Having been affiliated with Co-Lin for 23 years before becoming president, he was Dean of the College since 1985 and before that was dean of the Natchez campus and assistant dean.

He has been a high school social studies teacher, a business law/political science instructor on the community college level, and a adjunct instructor at the University of Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State University.

Dr. Garner earned a bachelor's degree from Mississippi State University, a master's degree, and his doctorate from the University of Southern Mississippi, in addition to 40 hours at the University of Mississippi School of Law.

He has served on numerous boards and committees and as president of the Mississippi Deans Association. He is listed in several professional biographies. Dr. Garner has been active in the Lions Club on a local, district, state, and international level. He has served in various positions including Club President, Zone Chairman, District Governor, State Membership Chairman, State Leadership Chairman and President of the Mississippi Lions Sight Foundation. He has received four international President's Awards.

Dr. Garner has served in various leadership positions in the Wesson Chamber of Commerce and the Copiah County Economic Development District since 1991.

He and Mrs. Garner are active members of Brookhaven First Baptist Church. Dr. Garner and his wife, Candace, are parents of two sons, Brad and Justin.

Dr. Paul Johnson
Dean of the College

Dr. Paul D. Johnson became District Dean of the College on July 1, 1997. As Dean of the College, acting under and in conjunction with the president, Dr. Johnson has the responsibility of coordinating all phases of the college program.

Prior to this, he served Copiah-Lincoln Community College as Dean of the Natchez Campus, Division Chair for the Health and Physical Education Division, and men's head basketball coach where he led the Wolves to the MACJC state championship in 1989.

Dr. Johnson began his coaching/teaching career at South Natchez High School in1978. Additionally, he has worked at the University of Texas – Austin, East Tennessee State University, and Prentiss High School.

An Associate Degree graduate from Jones County Junior College, Dr. Johnson received his Bachelor's Degree from Belhaven College and a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Southern Mississippi. He received his Doctorate of Philosophy in Educational Leadership from the University of Mississippi. Dr. Johnson is a member of many professional organizations such as Copiah-Lincoln Educators Association, Mississippi Academic Dean's Association, Wesson Lions Club, Wesson Chamber of Commerce, and Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce.

He is married to Mary Johnson and has two daughters, Maggie and Anna. They are members of First Baptist Church in Brookhaven.

Following Blueprints

Student Body

We came because they told us it was "the place to be." As we journeyed through the year, we found ourselves getting caught up in class schedules with many papers and deadlines and organizations with endless meetings and projects, all on the same day. Just when we thought we couldn't take anymore we look around and say "Where did the time go... it can't be May already." But, we wouldn't have had it any other way.

"To thine ownself be true."

Features

The Features section honors students who have been chosen by the faculty, staff, and students of Co-Lin to receive special recognition. The Who's Who students were chosen based on their academic acheivements. The Hall of Fame inductees were nominated and chosen by the students, faculty, and staff of Co-Lin based on their academic and extra-curricular involvement at Co-Lin. Class Favorites, the Homecoming Court, and Mr. and Mrs. Co-Lin were all chosen by the student body of Co-Lin. The "Safari Night" Beauty Pagent winners were chosen by selected judges. These students help make Co-Lin "The Place to Be."

Mr. and Miss Co-Lin

Matt Mooney and Jessica Bueto

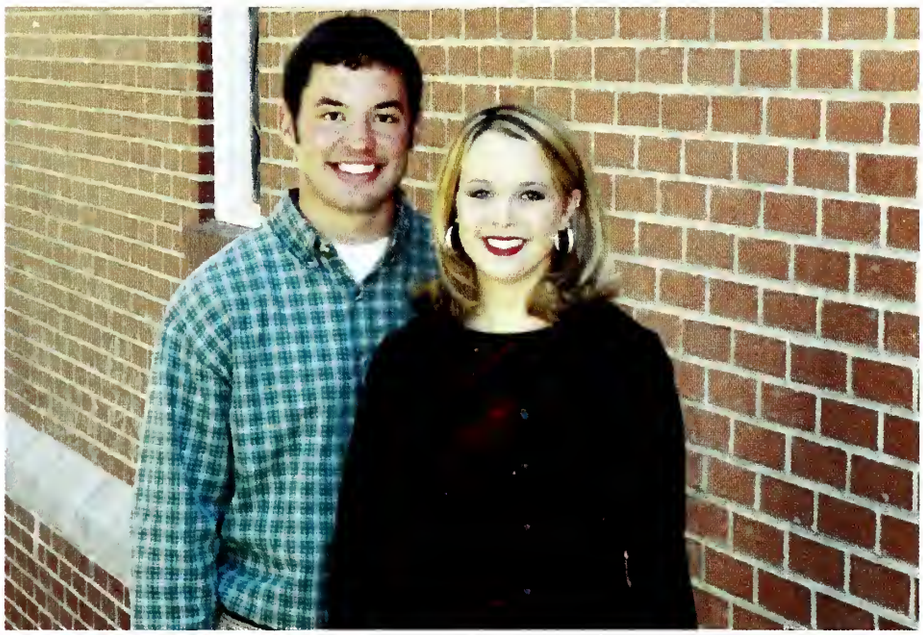
From Baby Matt and Little Jessica to Mr. and Miss Colin. How did they do it?

Matt Mooney is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Spencer Mooney. Matt is honored to have been chosen Mr. Co-Lin. He believes strongly in God and that he has been blessed him here at Co-lin.

Matt plans to move on to a senior college and earn a bachelor's degree in Business. After that he hopes to work in either the financial or marketing field.

Matt participates in numerous activities here at Co-Lin. He participates in PTK (president) BSU (council member) PBL, President's Council, golf team, and Trailblazers. Among some of Matt's personal hobbies are golf, weightlifiting, hunting, fishing, and theological studies.

Matt has received an abundance of awards such as the Ken and Ruth Patterson Endowed Scholarship, Act scholarship, All-USA Academic Team Nominee, etcetera.



Jessica Lea Bueto is the daughter of Kim Bueto. Jessica is very proud to be Miss Co-Lin. Jessica stated, "It warms my heart to know people have chosen me out of alot of good and caring people." She considers this a huge honor, because it lets her show her community and school how involved she is.

Her goal is to maintain a performing job as long as possible and later continue with to college. Jessica plans to double major in Public Relations and Dance.

Jessica is very active participating in PTK, Colettes, Trailblazers, concert choir, Sojourner, Diamond Doll, etcetera. Some of her personal hobbies include: singing, dancing, swimming, shopping, traveling, being with family, hanging out with, friends, and riding rides at the fair.

Some of her awards include homecoming maid, National Dean List, Who's Who, Hammons Family Involver scholarship, etcetera.

Sports

This year's Sport division page is for the fans. What would a game be without the fans? Whether fans know it or not, being in the stands is very important. No matter what sport, fans perform a number of actions that help make the game better. These candids stand as proof of the true fans.

Sports

(Above) Fans share the pain when the players get hurt in the game.

(Left) Some fans go
the extra mile
to support the team.

(Below) Fans like to stand up to cheer you on ,
and sometimes they like to yell out tips.

is that they are willing to look the other way
when the team isn't doing their best.

ORGANIZATIONS

Are you trying to get ahead in life?

Co-Lin offers a varity of ways to help students to succeed in life. Joining an organization should be apart of every student's blueprint for success. Organizations provide students with many benefits. Joining an organization give a chance to meet new people and make friends. Also, there are valuable things to be learned from an organization. Being part of a group teaches leadership, teamwork, and responsibility. Most important is the service that organizations provide for the community.

COPIAH-LINCOLN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

BUILDING YOUR HOUSE OF TOMORROW AT THE HOUSE OF CO-LIN TODAY

Welcome to our house located at Co-Lin Circle. Our house a house that has been built on the solid foundation of edu-ation. Our instructors, administrators, and staff have been e engineers that have laid the foundation for a successful ture. And, we, students, are the construction workers who e building the house we plan to live in tomorrow.

In our present house, we are surrounded by the walls of owledge and understanding that are held together by our illingness to study and persevere. In our house, we are pro-ided with an environment that not only nourishes our bodies, inds, and souls, but also equips us with the knowledge and kills needed to be successful in our endeavors. In our house, e are given exercises that strengthen our bodies and allevi-te the stress that often accompanies life changes and emands. In our house, we are surrounded by the love, atience, and understanding of our friends. instructors, dministrators, and staff as we struggle to learn and develop e skills of critical thinking. But, even in our struggles, we emain open to new ideas and ready to learn. And, in our house, we have a skylight that was put there to reminds us to always look to the sky and shoot for the stars.

An unknown author once wrote, "Life is a do-it-yourself project. Your attitudes and the choices you make today, build the 'house' you live in tomorrow." We, the students, faculty, administrators, and staff, invite you to come on over to our house and make the choice of building your house of tomorrow on the foundation of education provided for you today at the house of Co-Lin.

Come on over to our house

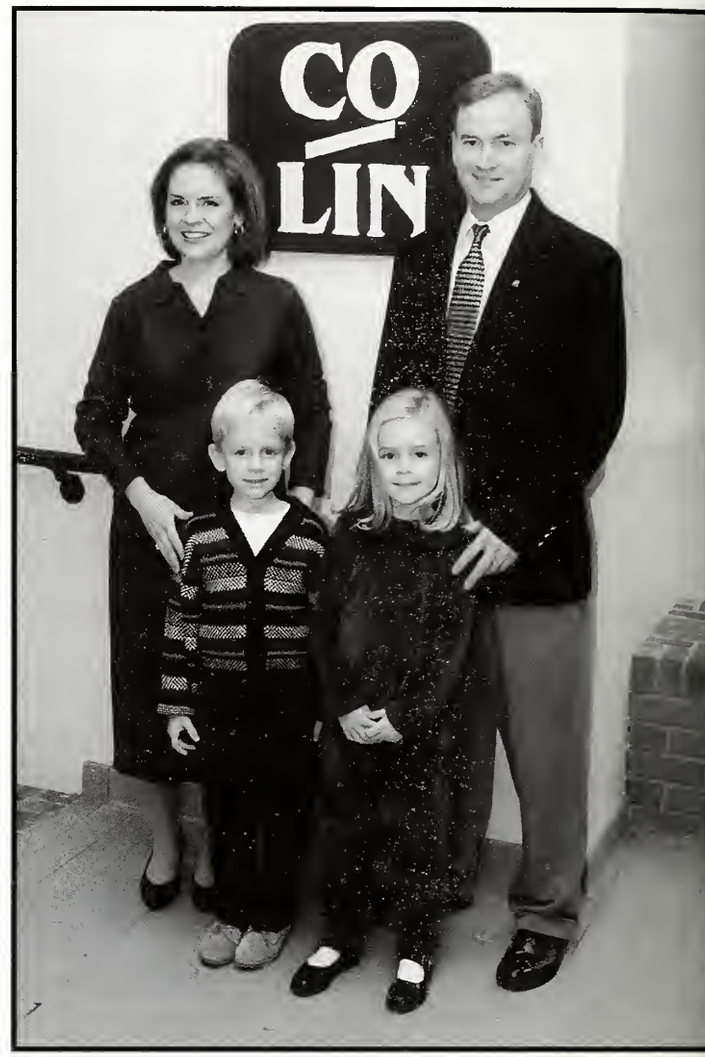
Ronald E. Nettles
Dean of the Natchez Campus

Ronald E. Nettles became dean of the Natchez Campus in July of 1997. For the three years prior to becoming dean of the Natchez campus, he served as the Director of Community and Economic Development for Co-Lin in Wesson, where he was responsible for coordinating the development of customized training and educational programs for business and industry.

Nettles, a Natchez native, graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science in 1983 and a Master of Education degree in Counseling and Personnel Services in 1986. He received a Ph.D. from the University of Mississippi in Educational Leadership in 1994. Prior to his employment at Co-Lin, Nettles was the Director of Career Planning and Placement at the University of Mississippi.

Nettles is an active member of the Natchez Rotary Club and served on the board of directors of the Natchez Chamber of Commerce. He is also a member of the Academic Deans Association and the Mississippi Association of School Administrators. He is past president of the Mississippi Cooperative Education and Placement Association and the University Civitan Club in Hattiesburg.

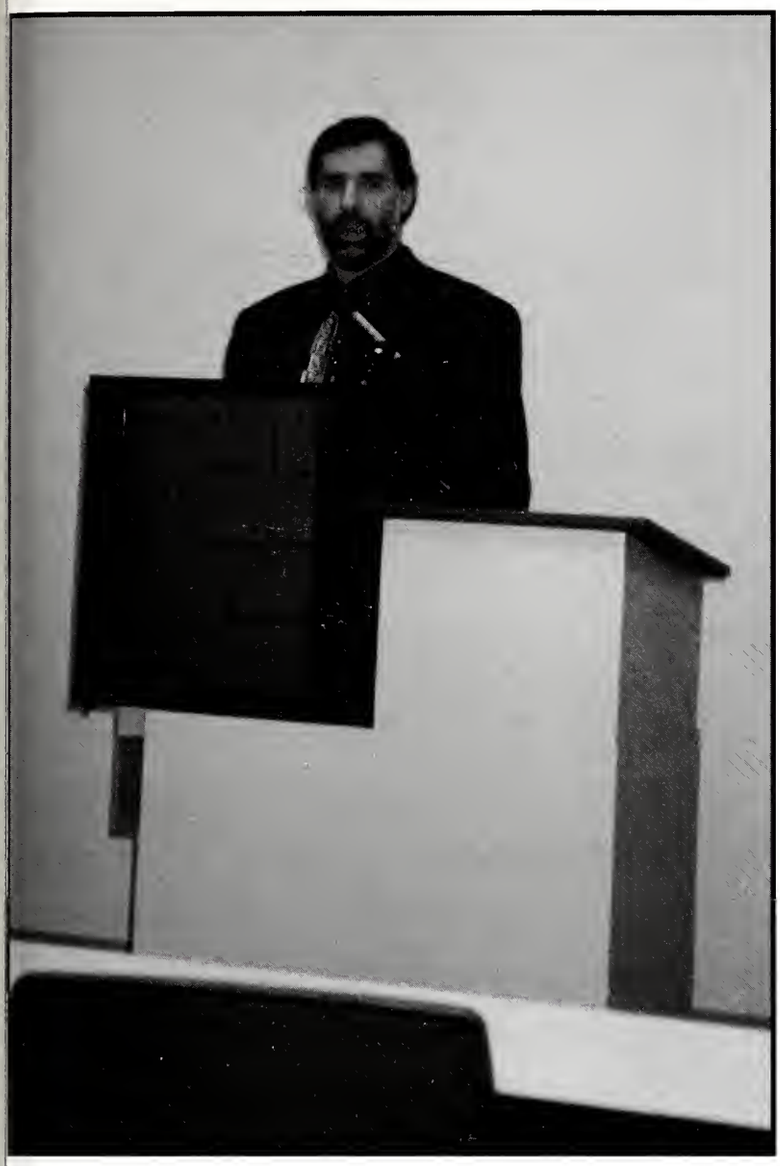
Nettles' goals for the Natchez campus are to continue to expand course offerings and student programs and provide a quality education in a caring environment.



The Nettles family includes Ronald, Rosie, Jordan, and Brandy.

Dean Nettles is never too busy to give you a smile.

As dean of the Natchez Champus, Nettles has to wear many hats.



James "Jim" L. Wiggins, Jr. Receives The Natchez Trillium Dedication

Jim Wiggins graduated from Mississippi State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master of Arts degree in history. He has been a dedicated employee of Co-Lin since 1981, teaching history and serving as sponsor for the Scholars' Bowl. He is also a 1998 recipient of the Mississippi Humanities Council Outstanding Teacher Award.

Wiggins is very active on and off campus, often serving as a local lecturer and speaker for numerous organizations. Additionally, Wiggins serves as consultant to the Natchez Democrat, often giving his expert advice and opinions on historical and cultural issues and current events. He has also served as Master of Ceremony for the campus' Millionnaire Bowl Competition and as a tour guide for the Co-Lin group's trips to England and Paris. Furthermore, Wiggins is a regular participant in the Renaissance Faire, an annual event co-sponsored by his wife Judy.

When asked to give reasons why he is worthy of the Trillium Dedication Award, one individual stated, "Jim Wiggins is the epitome of the true history teacher. He is very well prepared for his classes. He is extremely well read. He is punctual, considerate, courteous, and a great speaker. Jim Wiggins is one of the jewels of Co-Lin/Natchez." Another individual wrote, "[Jim Wiggins] is quietly brilliant."

With respect and admiration, the 2001-2002 Natchez Trillium Dedication goes to Jim Wiggins.

Jim Wiggins offers a supportive hand to his wife Judy during the signing of her new book.

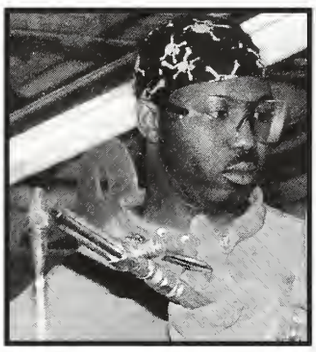
IN LOVING MEMORY



JAMES KING

BETTY CHRISTMAS

DEATH BE NOT PROUD

Death be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those, whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow,
Die not, poor death; nor canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best me with thee do go,
Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell,
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well,
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally;
And death shall be no more; death, thou shalt die.

John Donne

Walsworth
